Happy New Year to you all!

Already 2012 is looking good for Quilters by the Square – we're moving back to our home at 32 West St.

We will be closed at both locations on Jan 9, 10 and 11th to move and "set up shop". Starting Thursday Jan 12th, we will be open at both locations for 3 days.

At 53 South Street, we will be having a Blow-Out Clearance Sale Jan 12, 13th and 14th. There will be a large selection of fabric for sale at $3.50 and $7.50 per metre, with select fat quarters at $1.50. Select panels and patterns will be $4.50 each, and assorted books will be $9.00. This sale is for 3 days only. Don't miss out!

Starting Thursday Jan. 12, we will also be having a "Store Warming" party at 32 West St. All regularly priced fabric will be 15% off for 3 days. Bring in non-perishable food for the food bank when you check out our fresh new look and receive a special thank-you gift.

Thank you for your support during our transition, when we were "twisted, not broken". We look forward to seeing you at 32 West St.
